Everything Old is New Again

KPQG will host an exhibit of quilts and wall hangings in the main gallery of Manhattan Arts Center July 19-August 30. Our theme is "Everything Old is New Again," taking traditional quilt patterns and using them in new ways. This may be by re-drafting the pattern, using modern techniques or altering the traditional color schemes.

The opening reception will be Friday, July 18.

KPQG members are encouraged to look at their existing quilts and plans for new projects as we prepare for this exhibit. It has been 4 years since we've exhibited at the MAC, and we want this show to be reflective of the innovative ways that quilting takes place in our community.

Questions, call Jennie Burden, 539-1204.
